RED MEN.

Proposed Orphanage to Be Erected at

Austell, Ga .- Short Talks. About two years ago the Red Men of Georgia, in session at Macon, decided to build an orphanage, and the members of the order began to consider means to secomplish the undertaking. Mr. Will Austell became a member about this time and immediately took hold of the matter. He donated five acres of land in the corporate limits of the city of Austell on which to build the home. He also denated 10,000

RED MEN'S ORPHANS' HOME, AUSTELL, UA. in money. Of this sum $500 was to be paid upon the starting of work on the home, and the remaining $2,000 was to be paid upon its completion. The Red Men throughout the whole state are working on the matter, and considerably more than $6,000 has already been raised by the various lodges. The orphans' home is for the purpose of taking care of and educat-ing the orphans of Red Men, and provision will be made for both sexes. Nashna tribe, No. 37, of Fitchburg, Mass., contemplates establishing a free bed for unfortunate members of the order Charity- Eere and There. An order may be constantly adding to its numerical strength until its members are numbered by legions and yet fail of being a progressive body. True progress does not mean nightly initiations, but rather a development of the higher aims embodied in the rituals and amnounced principles. Along these lines may be gauged the true progress of fraternal hodles, and the fruits of such progress in Odd Fellowship are found in the homes for aged and infirm and the asylums for orphans springing up in all parts of the globe. The good already accomplished, however, only suggests what a vast army like this may accomplish when actuated by the best impulses. Odd Fellowship is susceptible of still greater development. Sister organizations have adopted ideas which would strengthen the triple links.

The Rebekah degree is full of grano truths, and its lectures and teachings will elevate and ennoble all who follow them, and its influence will extend to all branches of the order. A member of a lodge acting as counsel place at the end of a year's disability, but only after a year's benefits have been paid. The new Odd Fellows' temple in Cincinnati is a large structure, seven stories high. With the exception of the city hail, it is the handsomest edifice in the city. Henry E. Ruggles is grand master of the grand lodge of Massachusetts.

The grand master has the right to appoint a P. G. in good standing who is in possession of the Rebelshi degree as his deputy to institute a Rebekah lodge. One great virtue to be conduted is that of cheerfulness. He cheerful in your lodge, in your sickroom. Meet every one cheerfully and with a smile of welcome. Visit the sick as often as possible.

It is one thing to profess the principles of Odd Fellowship and to claim membership in a lodge. It may be quite another to live and not according to the high standard of the order.

Mystic Shrine.

John Worthington, United States consul to Maits and foreign representative of the imperial council of the Order of the Mystic Shrine in America, made a pilgrimage to the countries murthe Meditarrancan sea. He says of the order in some of those countries: "The potentsce's scepter of Tenerife shrine is very handsom a with a magnificent topaz sunk in the top and a great supphire at the base. body is of Russian malachite. The Komm and Koran stand are highly illuminated in gold and pearls." The shrine of Saffi has a cash balance in Marseilles banks of 800,000 francs. Ho fore the last cholera outbreak they had 1,000,000 france in the treasury. At the end of the same they had less than onefifth of that amount. A heavenly donation of over 800,000 francs to relieve God's sick and dying children in Safil.

Damascus temple will be the most superbly carpeted temple in the world. It will occupy 40 skilled workmen two years more to complete the sumptuous rugs, which are he work of the most artistic designer in Syria. The rugs are so closely made and thick that a park of artillery passing over them would be noiseless.
